Cambridge Food Bank

You can find the current list of what is needed at the following link before deciding what to bring:

Church Lunches

It's a while since we had a communal lunch at the church. So we've decided to re-start with a 'bring-you-own-picnic' lunch at the church after the service on Sunday 3 July. More details nearer the time.

Summer tea parties

At a recent committee meeting also talked about restarting our summer tea parties, which have been running for several years now. For those of you who are new, these events take place at the homes of members and friends of the church. So we'll be looking for people to host tea parties in July, August and September. Saturday afternoons 3-5pm is the usual time. If you might be interested in hosting one of these events, please contact Brendan on secretary@cambridgeunitarian.org

Refugee Week 20-26 June

There are several events in Cambridge during Refugee Week including an opportunity to watch the film 'The Stansted 15 on Trial' on 21 June, an exhibition in Cambridge Central Library, and the CamCRAG Summer Arts Fair on 25 June. There are updates on bicycles or refugees, the 'Mums for Ukraine' group, and the City of Sanctuary Network's conference (21 September). I have posted full information on the church's own internal SLACK site. If you are a member or attender of the congregation and haven't yet used SLACK yet, please just be in touch, and I can send you the link.

I look forward to seeing some of you this Sunday.

As always,
